And Would Also Add Largely to Ou Revenue and Occupy Hillsides Nov Fit Only for Sheep Raising-Minister Griscom and Many Consuls Approve

A movement has been set on foot by American Wine Growers Association looking toward legislation in the various States for separating the licenses of wine sellers from those of liquor dealers, with a much lower rate for those engaged in to former occupation. At the same time the domestic wine growers hope to secure a tariff on foreign wines more to their liking. Yesterday afternoon the executive committee of the association me at the Hotel Breslin and listended to a report made by A. Sharboro of San Francisco, president of the Italian-American Bank and the Manufacturers and Producers Association of that city, who has been in Europe collecting data on the subject of wine drinking as a cure for the liquor evil. Mr. Sharboro was armed with letters from Ambassador Griscom and many Consuls telling of the lack of drunkenness in the wine drinking countries.

Mr. Sharboro said in his address that he had taken up the subject "not only for its enormous commercial value but from the moral point of view of educating the American people in the use of wine at their meals, which will have the effect of eventually removing the curse of drunkenness from our country.

The efforts of the prohibitionists Mr. Sharl ore dismissed as failures, alleging that drunkenness is more rife in the prohibition States than in the others. Of his own remedy for the evil, Mr. Sharboro said "it will create a new, pleasant and health giving industry in setting out millions of acres of new vineyards throughout the United States, thus giving profitable occupation to millions of industrious

After his trip on the Continent Mr. Sharboro visited England and noted in his speech the difference between it and the countries he had quitted-difference in the number of arrests for drunkenness, which he quoted at 270,000 a year in England. In that country, he said, grapes could be grown only in hothouses, but in the United States the case was far dif-

"Grapes were first planted in California," he said, "by the Spanish friars from cuttings imported from Spain and were found to thrive just as vigorously as in their mother country. This variety of gra; e, however, did not make a very fine wine, but in later years the finest varieties of grapes were imported from France. Italy and the Rhine country and to-day California produces just as fine, if not more delicious, wines as those produced in the most favored wine countries of Europe. Furthermore, it recently has also been demonstrated that grapes will grow and that good wine can be made in almost every State in the Union." The possibilities of this country as a wine producer, Mr. Sbarboro placed at 300,000,000 gallons per annum, with a value of 000,000 gallons per annum, with a value of 8600,000.000. "And this product," he added, "will be derived from the hillsides added, "will be derived from the hillsides of our country now generally used only as sheep pastures."

To achieve this Mr. Sbarboro said that the grape growers ask for "no subsidy or Government aid, which is liberally granted to the wine producing countries of Europe," but they do ask for "and demand that the health giving beverage of the juice of the grape produced in the United States be encouraged and protected by a sufficient tariff duty against foreign wine and permitted to to be sold and distributed to the people as freely as now are sold and distributed tea and coffee and milk."

The letter read by Mr. Sbarboro from Lloyd C. Griscom, American Ambassador to Rome, said:

I have pleasure in stating that during

I have pleasure in stating that during my residence in Italy I have seen very few cases of drunkenness. The people as a whole are accustomed to drink wine at their meals, which perhaps prevents them from having a craving for stronger in-

C. S. Crowninshield, Consul at Naples, wrote that "in this great city of $00,000 inhabitants one very seldom sees a person the worse for drink. Wine is taken freely among all classes; most workmen drink from a pint to a quart every day, but there is almost no use of strong liquor. Similar testimony was given by the American consuls at Genoa, Palermo, Florence, Venice, Milan and Barmen and Kehl in Germany.

SUES R. W. RIVES FOR $20,000. Gardener Says He Was Slandered and Frisely Arrested as a Burgiar.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Feb. 2 .- Reginald W. Rives of New York has been sued for $20,000 damages for false arrest and slander by William Wilson, a former gardener on Rives's estate, "Carnwath," at New Mr. Rives accused Wilson of having broken into the Rives mansion and had broken into the Rives mansion and had him arrested. The strange feature of the case was that Wilson had a key and there was no occasion for him to break in. The Grand Jury refused to indict him and he was discharged.

Wilson maintains that Mr. Rives after the discovery of the alleged burglary standered him by saying: "Wilson. I'm not going to mince matters. You did this and I want you to confess."

To this Wilson alleges that he replied:

To this Wilson alleges that he replied: "I have nothing to confess, so help me God." Mr. Rives is said to have rejoined: "You are lying. I know you are guilty for I have the proof."

MICHAELSON GETS BAIL. Fischer-Hansen's Partner at Liberty, but He Stays in the Tombs.

Mexander Michaelson, the law partner of Carl Fischer-Hansen, with whom he was jointly indicted recently on a charge of bribing a witness, secured bail yesterday and got out of the Tombs, where he and Fischer-Hansen have been since last Friday. Michaelson's friends de-posited $10.000 cash bail with the City Chamberlain. Fischer-Hansen is still in the Tombs and so far as could be learned or his father-in-law, Isaac V. Brokaw.

Frank Guerin, formerly a clerk in Fischer-Hansen's office, was examined at length yesterday afternoon by Assistant District Attorney Smyth. Guerin was arrested last Sunday on a larceny charge, but was discharged in the police court yesterday. He went directly from court to the District Attorney's office.

NEW SPRING AND SUMMER STYLES

We have succeeded this season in getting out all our New Samples of the Advance Styles for Spring and Summer Furnishings much earlier than usual, and after Feb. 1st we invite all those interested to view the same—as now displayed on our ten spacious floors.

The examples in Enamelled Furniture both in Bedroom and Sitting Room pieces in the different colors are particularly unique, while in Reed, Rattan and Willow the variety is endless. Bird's-eye Maple, Birch and White Mahogany woods are very extensively used in the new designs for Bedroom Suites or single pieces.

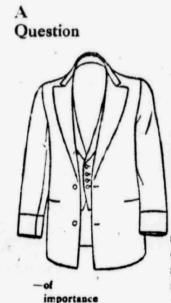

In our several departments we have carried over from last season a number of very attractive pieces suitable for present furnishing which we have marked at decidedly inviting prices.

Somebody Tried to Sell the Scandal to the National Committee.

Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic national committee, spent half an hour yesterday morning before the Federal Grand Jury which is investigating the World's Panama Canal sale scandal. Before going into the jury room he had a talk with De Lancey Nicoll of counsel for the World, who spent all the morning as near the Grand Jury as he could get. It seemed to be his idea that there might be an indictment yesterday, but at the end of the session some of the witnesses were summoned to appear next Tuesday afternoon.

Just before the World printed the Panama article a similar story was offered to the Democratic national committee, which was looking around for campaign material. Mr. Mack as chairman of the committee is said to have conducted the progenitions which want on at that time
